

HAWK AVIATION GROUP STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS (SALES AND REPAIRS)

The Customer's attention is particularly drawn to the limitations of liability contained in Clause 9 (Liability). Hawk may agree variations to Clause 9 (and any others limiting liability) subject to a reasonable price adjustment, to cover any additional liability.

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 In these Standard Terms and Conditions (the "Standard Terms") the following expressions (except where the context requires otherwise) have the following meanings:

"Hawk" means Hawk Aviation LTD or Hawk Aviation LA-LLC or Hawk Aviation Europe LTD.

"Hawk Facility" means Hawk facility in Sunrise FL USA or Hawk facility in Hounslow Middlesex UK, unless expressly agreed otherwise.

"Credit Agreement" means the agreement setting out the credit terms between Hawk and the Customer for the Order(s).

"Dual Use" means the aircraft part can be installed on civil aircraft and also used for military purposes, as defined from time to time by US regulatory authorities.

"Parts" means any aircraft component parts specified in an Order.

"Order" means any order submitted by the Customer for a Sale and/or Repair and/or Loan and/or Exchange.

"Repair" means any repair, overhaul, inspection, modification and/or testing arranged by Hawk on behalf of the Customer and "Repaired" shall be understood accordingly.

"Sale" means the outright sale of a Part by Hawk to the Customer and "Sold" shall be understood accordingly.

"Loan" means the loan of a Part by Hawk to the Customer and "Loan" shall be understood accordingly, when the same serial number of the loaned unit is returned by the customer to Hawk.

"Exchange" means the advance exchange of a Part by Hawk to the Customer and "Exchange" shall be understood accordingly, and the customer is obligated to cover all costs incurred by Hawk to return the unservisable return unit to service.

"The Customer" means the purchaser, loan, exchange of Parts or Repairs pursuant to a valid Order.

2. GENERAL

2.1 All Parts supplied by Hawk shall be released in accordance with EASA/JAR and/or FAR regulations. Hawk can release parts in accordance to CAAC regulations should the customer require this.

2.2 Unless the Part is defective, the Customer may not return to Hawk for credit any Part specifically purchased by Hawk from a third party supplier for onward sale.

2.3 Parts in Serviceable condition will be supplied to the Customer with a total of 6 months warranty and parts in Overhauled condition will be supplied to the Customer with 12 months warranty, all subject to Hawk warranty terms that may change from time to time.

3. VALIDITY OF PRICE QUOTE

3.1 The price quoted by Hawk for each Sale, Loan, Exchange and Repair is based on the current price of materials, labor and other prime costs of Hawk and shall remain valid for acceptance by Customer for 7 days. If Customer has not accepted the quoted price within 7 days, Hawk reserves the right to revise the price quoted. All prices quoted shall be exclusive of any VAT payable.

4. PAYMENT TERMS

4.1 Customer shall pay all invoices within 30 days of the date of the invoice, unless otherwise stated on Hawk invoice issued against the Customer's Order.

4.2 If Customer wishes to dispute any invoiced amount, it shall notify Hawk as soon as practical and in any event within 14 days of the date of invoice. If Customer does not notify Hawk of a dispute within such time period, the invoice shall be deemed accepted. If Customer does notify Hawk of a dispute in the time frame required, Customer shall pay that part of the invoice not in dispute when due. In the event that representatives from the Customer and Hawk cannot resolve any invoice dispute within seven days, the parties shall follow the dispute resolution procedure in clause 14.1 below.

4.3 Customer hereby grants to Hawk by way of security a legal repairer's lien in respect of all property owned by Customer in the possession of Hawk or any of Hawk's affiliates or subcontractors, at any time (including Customer's beneficial rights in any property leased by Customer) ("Customer's Property"), to secure all amounts owed by Customer to Hawk hereunder or pursuant to any other agreement between Customer and Hawk.

4.4 Customer acknowledges that Hawk has the legal right to assert such repairer's lien (or any other statutory or common law liens applicable in law (foreign or domestic)) against the Customer's Property in its possession, following performance of services for which payment has not been received by Hawk. If Customer fails to tender payment owing under any agreement with Hawk (or any of its affiliates), Hawk shall have the right to retain Customer's Property until such time as payment has been made. On acceptance of the terms of this Agreement, Customer acknowledges that it has granted a power of sale to Hawk in respect of Customer's Property in Hawk's possession which may be exercised by Hawk in the event that any amount owed to Hawk (or any affiliate of Hawk) remains payable sixty days are the date of the original invoice in respect of the services delivered.

5. PLACE OF DELIVERY

5.1 The Parts shall be delivered Ex Works (Incoterms 2010) the HAWK Facility and the Customer shall be ready to collect them when notified by Hawk. The Customer shall reimburse any additional expense incurred by Hawk due to the Customer not being ready or able to collect Parts when requested to do so.

6. DELIVERY DATE

6.1 Hawk will use reasonable endeavours to meet any delivery date requested by the Customer on an Order. Hawk will provide an estimated delivery date, on request by the Customer. Hawk shall not be liable in any way in respect of late delivery howsoever caused nor shall failure to deliver in accordance with an estimated delivery date be deemed to be a breach of contract.

6.2 Unless agreed otherwise in writing, delays in the fulfilment of an Order shall not entitle the Customer to:

8. FORCE MAJEURE

- 8.1 Neither party shall be in breach of these Standard Terms nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under these Standard Terms if such delay or failure results from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control, and in such circumstances the affected party shall be entitled to a reasonable extension of the time for performing such obligations, provided that if the period of delay or non-performance continues for six months the party not affected may terminate these Standard Terms by giving 14 days' written notice to the other party.

9. LIABILITY

- 9.1 Hawk makes no warranty or representation of any kind with respect to any Sale or Repair as to merchantability, fitness for purpose, condition, quality, material design suitability, workmanship or operation of any kind or nature. All other conditions warranties or representations expressed or implied (save for the conditions implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979), statutory or otherwise are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, expressly excluded.
- 9.2 Nothing in these conditions excludes or limits the liability of Hawk:
 - 9.2.1 For death or personal injury caused by Hawk's negligence; or
 - 9.2.2 For any matter which it would be illegal for Hawk to exclude or attempt to exclude its liability; or
 - 9.2.3 For fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 9.3 Neither party shall be liable to the other for:
 - 9.3.1 Any indirect, special or consequential loss or damage; or
 - 9.3.2 Loss of data or other equipment or property; or
 - 9.3.3 Economic loss or damage; or
 - 9.3.4 Incurring of liability for loss or damage of any nature whatsoever suffered by third parties, other than death or personal injury (including in each case incidental and punitive damages); or
 - 9.3.5 Any loss of actual or anticipated profit, interest, revenue, anticipated savings or business or damage to goodwill, including any AOG related losses or claims of any kind.
- 9.4 HAWK's total liability in contract (including for any statutory interest payable), tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), misrepresentation, restitution or otherwise, arising in connection with the performance or contemplated performance of these Standard Terms (including for any statutory interest payable) shall be limited to the Order value.
- 9.5 The Customer indemnifies HAWK against all taxes (other than corporation tax of Hawk), levies, duties, charges, assessments or withholdings of any nature for which HAWK may be liable by operation of these Standard Terms and for any legal costs incurred by Hawk in enforcing any of its rights in respect of these Standard Terms.

10. CANCELLATIONS

- 10.1 The Customer may cancel any Order without charge if it notifies Hawk of the cancellation, in writing: (a) for a Sale, prior to the shipping of the Part or, (b) for Repairs, prior to Hawk's receipt of the Part.
- 10.2 Hawk shall be entitled to suspend or cancel further Sales or Repairs under this and / or any other agreement between the parties hereto if the Customer:
 - 10.2.1 Fails to take delivery of any Parts;
 - 10.2.2 Is in breach of Clause 12 (Import and Export Licenses and Regulations);

- 10.2.3 Fails to pay any amount due under these Standard Terms or the Credit Agreement within seven days of the due date; or
- 10.2.4 Becomes bankrupt or suffers any similar or analogous action in consequence of any unpaid debt to any person or company.

10.3 On cancellation:

- 10.3.1 Hawk shall have the right to re-take possession of any Part that has not been paid for or, in respect of a Repair which has not been paid for, to retain possession by way of a mechanic's lien, of any Part; and
- 10.3.2 The Customer shall immediately pay all fees and charges properly falling due under these Standard Terms or the Credit Agreement.

11. PASSING OF RISK AND TITLE

- 11.1 All Parts are at the risk of the Customer from delivery Ex Works (Incoterms 2010) the HAWK Facility. Parts Repaired are at the risk of the Customer until received by Hawk Delivered Duty Paid (Incoterms 2010) the Hawk Facility.
- 11.2 The Customer agrees and warrants that title to and ownership of Parts Sold by Hawk shall remain with and be vested in Hawk until Hawk has received from the Customer full payment in accordance with these Standard Terms and the Credit Agreement.

12. IMPORT AND EXPORT LICENCES AND REGULATIONS

- 12.1 As the recorder, importer and exporter of the Parts, the Customer will be responsible for obtaining any import license, export license, exchange permit or other required governmental authorization relating to the Units and shall be responsible for complying with all U.S.A, U.K. and foreign government licensing and reporting requirements in connection with these Standard Terms. If required by Hawk, the Customer shall make any such licenses and authorizations available to Hawk prior to the relevant Order shipment. Hawk will have no liability for any non-renewal, denial, restriction or delay in respect of any Customer application for a license, permit or authorization.
- 12.2 The parties agree that any export of Parts pursuant to these Standard Terms may be subject to both U.S. Export Administration Regulations, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations and other export control requirements of the U.S.A. (together, the "U.S.A Export Regulations"). In respect of any Part provided by HAWK, the Customer agrees not to:

 - 12.2.2 lease, exchange or dispose of any U.S. origin items to any country, company or individual that is either (i) required by US Export Regulations to hold a license to receive the goods (and does not hold the required license); or (ii) is prohibited from receiving U.S. exports by U.S. Export Regulations, as amended from time to time.

13. MISCELLANEOUS

- 13.1 The parties declare that they each have the right, power and authority, and have taken all action necessary, to execute and deliver and to exercise their rights and perform their obligations under these Standard Terms.
- 13.2 Unless and until the parties expressly agree otherwise in writing, these Standard Terms contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter. Each party acknowledges that, in entering into these Standard Terms, it has not relied on, and shall have no right or remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made negligently or innocently) other than as expressly set out in these Standard Terms. Nothing in this clause shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud.
- 13.3 Any amendment, variation or modification of these Standard Terms shall be ineffective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each party.
- 13.4 Subject to clause 4.2, the Customer shall not be entitled to withhold payment of any sums after they become due by reason of any right of set-off or counterclaim which the Customer may have or may wish to have or for any other reason whatsoever. Hawk shall be entitled to set-off any Customer funds held on deposit against any amounts due and payable (and remaining unpaid) under these Standard Terms.
- 13.5 If any provision of these Standard Terms (or part of any provision) is found by any court or other authority of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed not to form part of these Standard Terms, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of these Standard Terms shall not be affected. In addition, if a part of these Standard Terms becomes invalid, the parties will endeavour in good faith to reach agreement on a replacement provision that will reflect, as nearly as possible, the intent of the original provision.
- 13.6 The Customer shall not assign, transfer or sub-contract any Order to any third party without Hawk's prior written consent.
- 13.7 The parties to these Standard Terms do not intend by these Standard Terms to confer any rights whatsoever on any other party. Accordingly, the parties hereby expressly exclude the provisions of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 (or re-enactment thereof).
- 13.8 Where the Customer delivers any other standard terms and conditions to Hawk in respect of an Order, these Standard Terms and Conditions of Supply shall prevail.

14. DISPUTE RESOLUTION, LAW AND JURISDICTION

- 14.1 All disputes arising out of or in connection with these Standard Terms shall, to the extent possible, be settled amicably by negotiation between the Chief Executive Officer of Hawk and the Chief Executive Officer of the Customer within thirty (30) days from the date of written notice by either party of the existence of such a dispute and, failing such amicable settlement, shall be finally settled by court proceedings.
- 14.2 These Standard Terms, and any dispute arising from it (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of Israel and the parties agree to be bound by the exclusive jurisdiction of the Israeli Courts.
- 14.3 Any Customer incorporated outside the EU shall provide either a UK address for service of process or shall appoint a process agent in the UK as a condition precedent to being granted credit by Hawk. Customer shall notify Hawk of such address on signature of these terms and conditions.
